

Storm Season

Model:

- Fabric = 28 count Cashel in Crystal Fog by Picture This (www.picturethisplus.com)
- Pattern size = 22" x 18" (14 ct.)
- Stitch count = 311 x 255
- Stitched 2 over 2

Size of each dragon:

- Pattern size = 10" x 8" (14 ct.)
- Stitch count = 141 x 115

Stitch guides:

- Each dragon has the same symbols so that you can change the color order to your preference.
- All full & quarter stitches use 2 strands except where indicated
- Half stitches (grey lines) are 2 strands in color of associated quarter stitch
- Backstitches on antennae are 1 strand
- Backstitches on ribbons & rings are 2 strands and stitched at the same time as each x so that the outlining matches the color of the stitches.
- Additional stitching directions on p. 13

About the design:

The dragons in this design were inspired by satellite images of hurricanes and less intense, swirly inland storms. Such large storms are predicted to become more violent as human activity continues to disrupt natural weather patterns. Hopefully, the more sedate dragons of this pattern are the worst storms any of us will ever experience.

Backstitching

	1 strand Kreinik #4 - 005
	2 strands Dinky Dyes - 137 Riverina
	2 strands Waterlilies - 163 Plum
